ClimATe Change Needs Our ATtention!

The California Foundation for Independent Living Centers (CFILC) is proud to announce our second annual virtual Assistive Technology Conference on Friday, April 22, 2022 (Earth Day), from 9am - 4:30pm (PDT) focused on how assistive technology can assist us in adapting to climate change as people with disabilities and chronic health conditions, but also create sustainable and healthy environments.

Registration is now open! Networking sessions, special guest speakers, breakout AT workshops focused on gardening and wellness, plus cool prizes highlight this virtual conference. Join us for an exciting event! Registration fee is $39. If you are unemployed, or a student, and need a scholarship, please email conference@cfilc.org.

Connect with CFILC on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram for announcements and updates! Use hashtag: #DisabilityClimATe.
