Did you know Los Angeles County has 2 (two) Back-Up Programs?

- 1. Back-Up Attendant Program (BUAP): The BUAP provides short-term homecare assistance to eligible IHSS recipients when their regular homecare providers are unable to work due to an unexpected or unplanned event. The pay rate is $19.00/hour.

Requirements for BUAP Provider Applicants

- Approved to do IHSS work and for PASC Registry, and reside in LA County
- Have a Home Health Aide, CNA, LVN, or Homecare Integration Certificate
- Participate in a 1-hour information meeting, working fewer than 66 hrs/week, and
- Submit BUAP application forms to PASC

- 2. Back-Up Provider System (BUPS): This is a new statewide program “that allows any eligible IHSS recipient to receive temporary IHSS or WPCS from a backup provider when the recipient has an urgent need for backup related to personal care services, which cannot be met by an existing provider, or the recipient is transitioning to home-based care and does not yet have an identified provider.” The pay rate is $18.00/hour.

Requirements for BUPS Provider Applicants

- Approved to do IHSS work and for PASC Registry
- Reside in Los Angeles County
- Working fewer than 66 hours/week

To learn more about these programs, please sign up for a 1-hour information meeting on Zoom.
