

Interested in working occasionally as a Back-Up Provider on short-term assignments?

Los Angeles County currently has 2 types of Back-Up Programs:

Back-Up Attendant Program (BUAP): The BUAP provides short-term homecare assistance to eligible IHSS recipients when their regular homecare providers are unable to work due to an unexpected or unplanned event. The pay rate is $21.00/hour.

Requirements for BUAP Provider Applicants

- Approved to do IHSS work & for PASC Registry, and reside in LA County
- Have a Home Health Aide, CNA, LVN or Homecare Integration Certificate
- Participate in a 1-hour information meeting, working fewer than 66 hours/week, and
- Submit BUAP application forms to PASC

Back-Up Provider System (BUPS): This is a new statewide program “that allows any eligible recipient to receive temporary IHSS or WPCS from a back-up provider when the recipient has an urgent need for back-up related to personal care services, which cannot be met by an existing provider, or the recipient is transitioning to home-based care and does not yet have an identified provider.” The pay rate is $20.00/hour.

Requirements for BUPS Provider Applicants

- Approved to do IHSS work and for PASC Registry
- Reside in Los Angeles County
- Working fewer than 66 hours/week

*To learn more about these programs, please sign up for a 1-hour information meeting on Zoom. Spacing is limited. Once a meeting is full, applicants will have to sign up for the next available meeting.
